[The EVA Project]

The EVA Project (Empowered, Valued, Aware) is Harbour Housing's specialist trauma-informed service for women escaping domestic abuse and sexual violence.

HARBOUR HOUSING.

Our women-only safe accommodation, the EVA Project is designed to help residents recover from their past experiences and trauma at a pace which is appropriate for them. Furthermore, EVA is designed specifically for women with multiple or complex needs, and Harbour is the only safe accommodation provider in Cornwall which offers accommodation for this specific demographic.

The safety I feel at my accommodation has really helped me to grow and heal from my past.

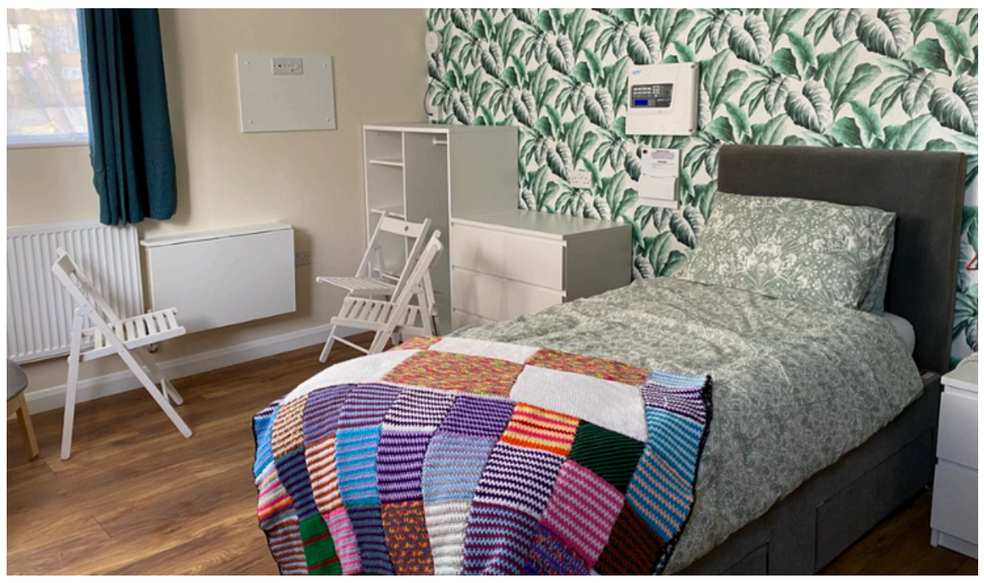

I'm really looking forwards to moving on and I'm really grateful I was able to come here when I really needed it.

They [Harbour] assist you until you find you're just doing it yourself.

- 'Jasmine', beneficiary of EVA.

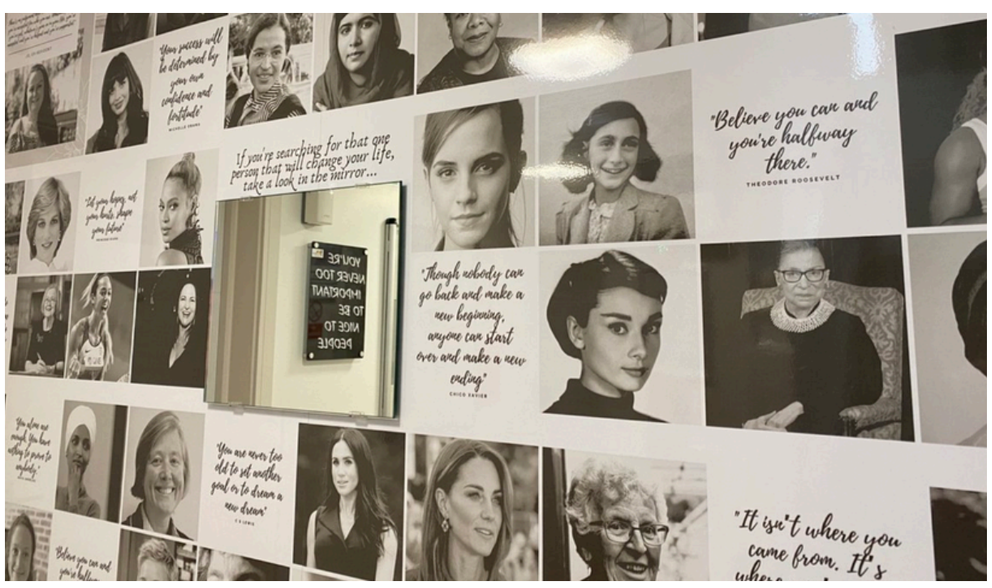

The Three S's at EVA:

Safe: We offer a safe and secure environment for those who live with us. EVA provides a space where residents can rebuild their lives while living in safety and security.

Supportive: We offer a range of services to support women, including holistic activities, in-house counselling and signposting.

Settled: EVA offers the security of a place to live for up to one year, affording residents the time and space to recover and look forward to a better future.
